CAN GOD REALLY TAKE CARE OF MY CHILDREN BETTER THAN ME?

This is a question I tend to wrestle with frequently. Even though my kids are adults I still tend to think I need to be the voice of God in their lives. I really seem to think God needs my help.

I have shared on numerous occasions the long journey we have been on with our son Chase who became very ill ten years ago, and with this illness brought a halt to the things he (and we, as his parents) had planned and dreamed for his life.

The last ten years have been riddled with extreme gratefulness that God healed his body, and he lived, but also wrought confusion as to why he still has not healed completely? Why disrupt the plan that seemed perfect for his life? I have cried out so many times to God, "Why, I don't understand."

Somewhere during this I think I really began to struggle with trusting God with Chase's life. All I could see was ruin and lost opportunity. I could see all his friends moving on with their lives and my child was stuck. I began to realize I was angry at God and had lost faith in believing He was at work in Chase's life at all.

It was then, at the height of my desperation God showed me something unexpected. I was the problem. I was trying so hard to "fix" things like I always do which left very little room for God to do His work. God instilled on my heart that I needed to back up, take my hands off and let God handle it. It was my faith that needed to mature and grow. So, I am working on this and as God continues to work on me, I will continue to pray for my kids.

So my prayer this month has been, "Lord, please help Chase and Chelsea see you in nature, in their relationships, in their suffering, in their joy. Help them see you and you alone."

So, to answer my own question, YES, GOD CAN TAKE CARE OF MY CHILDREN BETTER THAN ME..... I just have to move over!

BIBLE PRESENTATION

We had a wonderful time presenting Bibles to our 1st and 2nd graders! It was a special moment with their teachers Mr. Joe, Ms. Kay, and Ms. Linda. Pastors Debbie and Matt shared with the kids, and Mr. Joe led a beautiful prayer. We're so grateful to the families who came to celebrate this milestone with us!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

During Faith Family Night, the children have been focusing on the Lord's Prayer. We have been learning it together piece by piece each week. A few kids who already know it, have challenged themselves to learn it in a new language! Prayer is such a huge part of the spiritual formation for children and we are so proud of our kids!

Learn the Lord's Prayer with us

OUR FATHER, WHO ART IN HEAVEN, HALLOWED BE THY NAME;
THY KINGDOM COME;
THY WILL BE DONE;
ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN.
GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY
BREAD. AND FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES,
AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO
TRESPASS AGAINST US.
AND LEAD US NOT INTO
TEMPTATION; BUT DELIVER US
FROM EVIL.
FOR THINE IS THE KINGDOM,
THE POWER AND THE GLORY,
FOR EVER AND EVER.
AMEN.
